Re: Case No. 23-cv-1017 (AT), Erlick v. White

Dear Judge Torres:

My firm and I represent Plaintiff Eli Erlick in this case. I write to ask the Court for a two week extension of time to file an opposition to the motion to dismiss. Defendant consents to this extension.

Per the Court's rules:

1. The original date to oppose the motion was October 13, 2023 (Dkt. No. 31).
2. Plaintiff seeks this extension because counsel needs more time to prepare the opposition. Specifically, although I had tried to clear the time to prepare this memo, among other things, I am working on a book and my full drafts of the chapters I am responsible for were due this week and last. Those deadlines have been more pressing and all-consuming than I had anticipated. I am also working on a number of other matters with non-dispositive deadlines at the end of this week and beginning of next. And finally, while, in light of the Court's Order of Dkt. No. 31, I would normally ask for a single week or perhaps 10 days, I am travelling for part of next week and would appreciate the Court's indulgence in allowing a little longer.
3. This is the first request for an extension. However, the Court denied in part Plaintiff's initial request for a longer time to oppose the motion. See Dkt. No. 31.
4. (see 3)
5. Defendant has graciously consented to this extension request.

As ever, I thank the Court for its time and consideration.

GRANTED. Plaintiff shall file their opposition to the motion to dismiss by October 27, 2023. Defendant shall file their reply by November 10, 2023.

SO ORDERED.
